STAT

2. (Confidential - GLC) Met with Mr. James Bolton, Administrative Assistant to Representative Glenn R. Davis (R., Wis.), to talk with him about the Congressman's letter to the Director on [redacted] who supposedly had been representing himself as an Agency employee. I told Bolton that [redacted] has never been employed by the Agency, but that we had received a similar report about his representations in 1967. Bolton merely wished to confirm that [redacted] had not been employed by us. He said he had received a similar negative response from the Air Force to the Congressman's inquiry as to whether [redacted] was a brigadier general in the Air Force as he supposedly claims. Bolton said that Representative Davis has no personal interest in this and that nothing further is required from us.
